

This patient is participating in the UK NAVA Trial.

They have been allocated

Standard Care

Please do NOT place a Specialised Edi/NAVA Nasogastric Catheter in this patient

- The patient should be monitored and weaned from ventilator support using standard ICU protocols and practice. This includes the use of the standard pressure support mode where this is clinically indicated.
- Normal good practice (including daily sedation review and daily consideration of potential liberation from invasive ventilation) remain important.